MENUS BY MAMUŚKA

Mamuśka! Polish Kitchen and Bar confused, thinks they are a shipyard

After tortuous anticipation, Mamuśka! has proudly announced that their first-ever permanent location has been opened in South Bank, just under the Waterloo Station approaches, on the Westminster Bridge roundabout.

This massive new flagship is part of Leake Street Arches, the graffiti tunnel taken over by Banksy and his mates in 2008, which has since become home to a host of talented street artists, special events and incredible venues. Long-established The Vaults and music-venue-come-indoor-skater-park House of Vans, are now complemented by an impressive list of newcomers. Event venues include the multi-sensory experience Aures as well as the massive and versatile 26 Leake Street. Trendy and delicious Banh Bao Brothers Vietnamese Street Food restaurant and the retro anti-screen gaming destination Draughts (home to board games of every description) round out the play list, so naturally all Leake Street Arches was missing was a Polish restaurant and bar.

When the developers of Leake Street Arches asked us to take the corner location, we said "Yes, and we shall erect a steel fabrication plant!" Then we spoke about it, compromised and decided to build a restaurant and bar, since that seems to be what Mama does best.

The result is a venue that we hope customers are going to love, for a host of reasons. First, it has two proper bar areas; one at the entrance leading to the outside space, and The Platform at Mamuśka!, a massive space upstairs available for after-work drinks or private functions.

A gallery space is dedicated to Polish artists, reintroducing one of our early commitments to promoting Polish culture in the UK.

There is a handwashing station, buggy parking and play area for families with rug-rats... err... children... and comfortable seating for breast feeding mothers and tired hospital workers alike.

We have vodka freezer wells so we can serve cold shots much faster, and self-ordering kiosks so you don't have to queue for help, unless that's what you prefer. A stage area on the platform means Polish musical artists can debut albums in front of an excited audience of over 300 in this huge new venue of over 6000 square feet.

And the best part? Our prices are staying put. Yes, you will see the same annoying inflationary bumps we all have to put up with, but there will be no sudden jump in price due to the cost of building the new space. We still charge as little as possible to as many people as possible, everyday.

Please give us lots of feedback! The building work goes on and we know we have a quite a few finishing touches to add, so keep up to date by following us on social media, where we will be sharing plans and progress as we continue to develop this amazing destination that you have made possible through your continued support!

ARTISTRY, ART, FINE ART & MORE

OUR GALLERY SPACE IS BACK!

Part of our mission has always been to promote aspects of Polish culture, beyond food and drink.

Unfortunately, our second location did not lend itself terribly well to this part of our mission. But Location 3 could not be better!

We have an entire wall over 5 metres high, eventually with dedicated directional lighting, so that Polish artists (from both the UK and abroad) can exhibit their work for periods of between 4 and 6 weeks, free of charge with zero commission on sales. Mamuska Restaurants Limited has always been committed to promoting Polish culture, and this is one way we can do our part.

If you are or someone you know would be interested in exhibiting with us, contact marketing@mamuska.net.

We cannot wait to see interesting works on our walls again, and given the artistic nature of Leake Street, we believe this setting will provide tremendous exposure for the artists involved., and even some sales!

MUSIC

Fryderyk Chopin COMPOSER

Fryderyk was born in small Polish town called Żelazowa Wola, which can be translated as "Iron Will". Gives you some background on how he became the child prodigy as a pianist and composer at the tender age of 7, eh? Want some of that Iron Will to finish that project you've been putting away time and time again? Try some Chopin Vodka Mamuška! has stashed in the pantry. We're not sure if it'll carry the legacy and potency, but surely it won't hurt trying, right? → p. 8

SCIENCE

Maria Skłodowska-Curie CHEMIST

Poland born, two Nobel prizes, discoverer of Polonium and Radium, yada, yada, everyone knows that, right? But do you know what the "Little Curies" were?

She did have two daughters, but that was not their pet name. A Little Curie was a truck with an x-ray machine mounted in the back.

Maria 'commandeered' a bunch of them from Parisian institutions so she and her daughter Irène could go out to the battlefields of World War I and X-Ray the hurt soldiers. So not just smart, but pretty bad-ass as well!

On top of that, she was one of the first women to get a driving license!

USEFUL PHRASES

Today's Polish Lesson

Congratulations on your introduction to the most awesome aspect of Polish culture; the food! Now, lets continue with some work on the language...

im-pre-za /im-preh-sa/ - a party, celebration bom-bo-wy /boom-bo-vy/ - Just think, "Boom, Baby!" and you are pretty close sza-lo-ny /sha-lo-ny/ - if you're eating here because you married a polish woman, you know the definition ma-sak-ra /ma-sa-gra/ - directly translated, this means "massacre". However, in Poland, it will be used with a positive connotation to describe a beautiful meal where you ate far, far too much, or equally when relating a story of the drunk best man at a wedding who told really inappropriate jokes during his speech causing the Mother of the bride to walk out ... "Masakra!"

Ko-cham Cię /ko-ham che/ - What you want to say to that Polish girl at the next table once you are both up on The Platform having drinks

VEGAN KOTLET 🌱 🌱 GF £9.50

You know how some restaurants are clearly not at all vegan in their outlook, but try to jump on the band-wagon by creating really good vegan dishes just to appeal to the one vegan in a group so that the whole group comes back again, and again? Yeah, we did that.

This cutlet (which doubles up in our vegan burger) is made from beetroot, courgette, buckwheat and butternut squash, and is truly tasty, whether you are a "leaf-muncher" or not! Served with chips.

QUESTION CORNER - BOILED OR FRIED?

PIEROGI

Poland has LOTS of dumplings! They're all great, but the most popular are the classic half-moon shaped, stuffed pierogi. We make ours by hand right here on site, freeze them by the hundreds daily and boil them to order. Allow 10 minutes, longer if the joint is jumping.

MEET "MAMA"

We know that our people – team members as well as customers – make Mamuška! what it is. We often explain to new members joining the team that “we are ALL Mamuška!”

So here is our chance to show off some of the people that create the magic for you day after day, here at Mamuška!

HEAD CHEF

STATISTICS
Status:	Eligible!	Years with Mamuška!:	8
Age:	36	Favourite meal:	sushi
Nationality:	Polish	Annoyances:	slackers
Years in UK:	8	Hobbies:	fishing!

Krzysztof joined Mamuška! as a line chef in the autumn of 2010, just 1 month after we reopened Location 1 post-flood (OMG, remember THAT?!). He spoke no English and kept his head down. Luckily, his talent was difficult to hide, and he was offered the Head Chef position after a few months. Krzysztof has developed the processes and procedures that have taken us from our crude beginnings to our current capacity, serving over 200 meals per day. Now speaking fluent English and dealing directly with suppliers across the spectrum, his next step is Executive Chef overseeing our expansion across new markets. Naturally, his core passion is Polish food, but he secretly loves to cook Italian food and sushi, and is most ‘at peace’ fishing on a quiet lake back in the woods... whenever he is actually allowed to leave Mama’s kitchen, that is!

SUSTAINABILITY FUN FACTS

Despite our incredible low prices, Mamuška! has only ever used free range eggs.
All our takeaway cutlery is made from corn starch .
Our containers are reusable, microwavable and recyclable.
We separate at source and recycle like cray!
We have 5 waste streams: oil, food, glass, dry mixed recycling and lastly general waste, of which there is very little, as a result of this long-standing environmental policy.

KOZIOŁEK MATOŁEK /ko-zio-wek ma-to-wek/ (Matolek the Billy-Goat) is a fictional character created by Kornel Makuszyński (story) and Marian Walentynowicz (art) in one of the first and most famous Polish comics dating back to 1933. It became a cult classic and remains as popular today as it was 50 years ago, having become an important part of the canon of Polish children's literature.

Pacanów /pa-tsa-nuf/

Pacanów is a pretty town in south-central Poland and was often the fictional destination of Koziołek Matolek's many journeys. Founded in 1265 A.D. it today is home to the European Centre of Fable and is a great destination for families with smaller children..
