DRAW THE WORLD FAMOUS PEIROGI

Did you know?

Despite never being formerly part of the Soviet Union, the fall of that communist regime can be traced back directly to the victory of the Solidarity trade union movement of the Gdansk shipyards. In August 1989 the communist government of Poland, propped up by Moscow since the end of WW2, was forced by the sheer popularity of the Solidarity movement to relent and grant "semi-free" elections to the people of Poland. Three months later, the Berlin Wall fell.
